Mr. John F. Blake
Acting Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Mr. Blake:

I very much enjoyed my visit to the Agency last week. The briefings were useful, and the conversation at lunch was stimulating.

The positive reaction of those at the lunch to my suggestion that the Agency circulate periodically to Congress a list of titles of its unclassified publications is heartening. I believe making more CIA analysis available to Congress can have only beneficial results in demonstrating the usefulness and quality of the Agency's work.

My thanks to all who participated in making my visit a success.

Cordially,

Paul Simon
U. S. Congressman

PS/js

Keep up your good work!
